

Cave de L'Orlaya

GAMAY DE BRANSON VIEILLES VIGNES

A.O.C. Fully, Valais

The Orlaya cellar was created in 2016 when Mathilde Roux took over the Gérard Roduit cellar created in 1982. She now manages this beautiful 8 hectare vineyard. Located almost exclusively to the west of the town of Fully, on the Branson and "vers l'église" side, the 80 plots constitute a magnificent vineyard of old vines of Petite Arvine, Humagne, Gamay, Pinot Noir over forty years old. Since taking over the vineyard, Mathilde have been moving towards viticulture that is more respectful of the environment. Certification for organic viticulture began at the start of 2019. In addition, 3 hectares of the vineyard are researched for natural processes aimed at restoring soil and plant life. She thus respects the lunar cycles and tries to have a global vision of the vine in its ecosystem.
