

Father John Winery

GREENWOOD RIDGE

A.V.A. Anderson Valley

Father John Wines is dedicated to the late Reverend John Weaver, a renowned Episcopalian priest. Nicholas Maloney, a Sonoma native and John's grandson, operates Father John Wines. He currently lives in Beaune, France having studied at the world-re-nown Lycée Viticole.

Father John was launched in 2010. In California, he works with the Oehlman Vineyard in Graton (Russian River Valley), producing 200 cases in 2012. A Sonoma County Pinot Noir was offered in the 2014 vintage.

Maloney started making a Chardonnay from a single parcel, "Les Larrets Blancs," not far from Corton-Charlemagne and this wine was available in early 2016.

PARKER WOLF

wine & spirits

COUNTRY

USA

VARIETAL

100% pinot noir

SOIL TYPE

Sandy clay loam

VINEYARD

Planted early in the 1990s
1500 feet elevation
West of the Anderson Valley
3 miles from the Pacific Ocean
South facing exposition

HARVEST

Manual Harvest at night

VINIFICATION

Ancient technique of fermenting
Grapes whole cluster
Native yeasts

TASTING NOTES

Unparalleled natural acidity balanced by remarkably smooth texture. The aroma carries plenty of red fruits with earthy and herbaceous undertones. It holds a lush and balanced tannin structure with medium to medium-plus body and a long, fruit driven finish.

CERTIFICATION

Moments Unearthed

parkerwolfwine.com