

Cuvelier Los Andes

EL

Valle de Uco Mendoza

WHERE BORDEAUX MEETS MENDOZA

Cuvelier family's history in Argentina began in 1998, merging two centuries of French know-how, with the Argentine experience and the Mendoza terroir. Michel Rolland, Advising Oenologist at Château Léoville-Poyferré and Château Le Crock, Cuvelier family properties for more than a century, offered Bertrand and Jean-Guy Cuvelier the opportunity to invest in his Andean project. Seduced by Mendoza and by the "Clos de Los Siete" project, they decided to launch Cuvelier Los Andes. Seeking to implement their Grand Cru Classé de Bordeaux production techniques in the Uco Valley, they developed wines of excellence, with a signature Bordeaux style, and created Malbec-based blends, which are proudly presented as the Argentine cousins of Château Léoville-Poyferré.

PARKER WOLF

wine & spirits

COUNTRY

Argentina

VARIETAL

90 % Malbec
10% Merlot

SOIL TYPE

Sandy, Silt, Limestone with gravel and rounded pebbles

VINEYARD

Planted from 1999 to 2006
55 ha.
Altitude 1000 m above sea level
5500 plants per ha.
Vertical trellising system
Yield : 5000 to 6000 kg per ha.

HARVEST

Manually harvested

VINIFICATION

Fermented in new oak barrels.
Grapes selected by hand
Barrels filled by gravity
18 months aging
100% new French oak barrels

TASTING NOTES

Very attractive and intense red color.
Nose very complex and intense.
Seductive. Mouth incredibly full, intense and elegant with an outstanding ageing potential

CERTIFICATION

Moments Unearthed

parkerwolfwine.com