

HOLMES CAY®

HERITAGE BLEND

A RUM FOR ALL SEASONS

When Eric Kaye founded Holmes Cay Rum to import exceptional rums to North America, his goal was to share the origin of each rum he imported and honor the distiller's craft.

Now Holmes Cay proudly introduces the Heritage Blend, the company's first continuously available rum. It is Kaye's tribute to the three great rum distilling traditions that arose in the Caribbean basin.

Bottled at 43% alcohol by volume, the Heritage Blend is a new classic daiquiri rum, shows up gracefully in classic and tiki cocktails, and is a great sipper on its own.

THE SOURCES

The components of the Heritage blend were chosen to celebrate the diversity and versatility of rum, by incorporating the three great styles of rum, rum and ron.

Barbados Rum: Molasses Pot & Column still blend

Martinique Rhum: Cane juice Column still

Venezuela Ron: Molasses Column still

HONEST RUM - NO ADDITIVES OF ANY KIND

In the Heritage Blend, aged pot and column distillates from molasses and cane juice sources are combined to create its unique flavors. No sugar, no color and no other flavors are added in the making of this rum.

TASTING NOTES

Vanilla custard and citrus notes on the palate, with a finish of oak and baking spice.
